Re: Shaibi et al. v. Jaddou, 21-cv-6780

Dear Judge Gardephe:

This Office represents the government in the above-referenced action. This afternoon, the Court issued an order adjourning the conference scheduled for tomorrow until December 9, and directing the parties to file briefing addressing mootness, with the government's brief due by December 2 and the plaintiffs' brief in response due by December 6. See ECF No. 52. Counsel for the parties have conferred, and jointly respectfully request that the Court adjourn the December 9 conference until a date convenient to the Court in the second week of January 2022 (i.e., the week of January 10), and modify the schedule for briefing on mootness such that the government's brief would be due by December 14, and the plaintiffs' brief in response would be due by December 23.

Counsel for the parties make this joint request based on, among other things, their respective schedules and deadlines in other cases. This is the first request for an extension of these deadlines, and it is jointly requested by all parties.

We thank the Court for its consideration of these requests.

Respectfully,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
